

Searches at a bailiff from Chisinau, investigated by the NAC for abuse of office. He allegedly planned a scheme by which he deprived a debtor of his real estate

Officers of the National Anti-corruption Centre (NAC) and prosecutors from Chisinau conducted several searches today in a criminal case targeting a bailiff and a representative of the creditor, investigated for abuse of office with serious consequences.

According to the accumulated materials, the two allegedly planned an illegal scheme within an enforcement procedure, by which the debtor was deprived of a real estate located in Chisinau. The investigated acts fall within the scope of abuse of office, admitted by persons with a responsible position.

Following the searches carried out by anti-corruption officers, under the procedural leadership of the Chisinau Municipal Prosecutor's Office, at the homes and workplaces of the men, important materials for the criminal case were seized. The suspects will be investigated at liberty.

The NAC officers are carrying out actions to identify and document all persons involved in the aforementioned illegal actions and to hold them criminally liable, according to the provisions of the law.

We remind that any person shall be presumed innocent until a final and irrevocable court decision is issued.
