

The message of the director of the National Anti-corruption Centre, Alexandr Pînzari, on the occasion of the Criminal Investigation Officer's Day

On the occasion of Criminal Investigation Officer's Day, I extend my sincere congratulations to all my colleagues who carry out this noble mission with dedication and integrity.

Your work requires professionalism, balance and courage. Through your daily effort to defend the law and the truth, you directly contribute to strengthening the rule of law and increasing citizens' trust in justice.

Thank you for your dedication, fairness and for the fact that, through each action, you demonstrate that the fight against corruption is a cause in the service of the people and the country.
