

NAC officer Igor Beșleagă brought Moldova the world bronze in belt wrestling

The officer of the National Anti-corruption Centre (NAC), Igor Beșleagă, won the bronze medal at the World Belt Wrestling Championship, recently held in the United Arab Emirates.

The medal was obtained in the up to 82 kilogram category. Igor Beșleagă positioned himself among the best athletes in the world in this event, demonstrating that discipline, perseverance and dedication generate performance both in professional activity and in the international sports arena. The athlete has two other bronze medals in his record.

The NAC extends sincere congratulations to Igor Beșleagă and wishes him success in future competitions, assuring him of the full support of the institution.

