

The NAC launches a new competition to select anti-corruption volunteers

The National Anti-corruption Centre (NAC), as the host entity of volunteer activities, announces the launch of a competition to select anti-corruption volunteers, who will carry out their activity under the coordination and mentorship of the NAC Anti-corruption Education Directorate.

If you are a student, responsible, honest and motivated to actively get involved in preventing corruption and promoting integrity values, we invite you to become part of the NAC anti-corruption volunteer team.

Young people are encouraged to apply who:

- show interest in the field of integrity and anti-corruption;
- have civic spirit and desire to get involved;
- are open to participating in educational activities, campaigns and anti-corruption education projects.

The participation file will contain:

- the competition registration form;
- the agreement regarding the processing of personal data;
- a copy of the identity document;
- certificate of studies (confirming the status of pupil/student);
- motivation letter.

What benefits do you have as a NAC volunteer?

Volunteering activity offers opportunities for personal and professional development, in accordance with Law no. 326/2025 on volunteering activity:

- volunteering certificate attesting to the experience, skills and abilities acquired;
- letter of recommendation from the NAC;
- participation in trainings, campaigns and anti-corruption education project;
- development of communication, leadership and teamwork skills;
- direct involvement in promoting integrity at the national level;
- study visits to institutions in the country;
- study visits abroad and participation in international events.

At the same time, volunteering activity is considered work experience by the employer, if it constitutes a selection criterion and is relevant for the targeted position.
