

Recognition for implementing business integrity standards: the NAC awards Integrity Trophy to several companies and a private medical institution

The National Anti-corruption Centre (NAC) awarded the Integrity Trophy in the category “Implementation of Integrity Standards” to companies that have stood out by promoting an organizational culture based on ethics, transparency and responsibility. The event took place during the Moldovan Business Gala, now in its 23rd edition.

The trophy was awarded to the following companies: CET-Nord, Orange Moldova, Moldcell, Metro Cash & Carry Moldova, Kaufland Moldova, Coca-Cola HBC Moldova and Medpark International Hospital. The distinction is a recognition of the constant efforts made by these companies to implement integrity standards and for their contribution to the development of a transparent, fair and ethical business environment.

The category “Implementation of Integrity Standards in the Private Sector” highlights companies that apply effective measures to prevent corruption, responsibly manage integrity risks and contribute to strengthening an organizational culture based on accountability and compliance.

Through this initiative, the National Anti-corruption Centre aims to promote the application of the provisions of the Integrity Law no. 82/2017, encourage good practices in the private sector and stimulate companies to adopt and maintain high standards of integrity, transparency and corporate responsibility.

The Moldovan Business Gala is organized annually by the Chamber of Commerce and Industry of the Republic of Moldova in partnership with the State Agency for Intellectual Property and this year brought together representatives of public authorities, leaders of national companies, development partners, representatives of the diplomatic corps and civil society.
