

The National Anti-corruption Centre has launched a competition to select anti-corruption volunteers

The National Anti-corruption Centre (NAC), as a host institution of volunteering activities, has announced the competition to select anticorruption volunteers, who will carry out their activity under the mentorship of the Anti-corruption Education Directorate.

If you are a pupil or a student, you are honest, ambitious and hardworking, if you want to work together with the officers of the NAC, if you want to be involved in anti-corruption projects aimed for young people and you are motivated to have a unique first work experience, we urge you to apply for the competition of selection of anti-corruption volunteers that will contain:

- registration form
- agreement on processing personal data
- copy of the identity card
- certificate that confirms that you study at an educational institution
- motivation letter

The volunteering activity offers volunteers many opportunities, provided by the Law on Volunteering no.121 of June 18, 2010, that stipulates that persons involved in volunteering benefit from:

- nominal volunteering certificate (if involved in volunteering less than 20 hours per month);
- volunteer passport/booklet (if involved more than 20 hours per month);
- recommendation letter from the host institution of volunteering activity.

As well, the volunteering activity will be considered work experience in the conditions in which work experience constitutes a specific requirement to be accepted at the contest to occupy a vacant public position or will be considered as internship if there have been confirmed at least 40 hours.

The period for submitting application files – March 10 – March 31, 2025.

The documents shall be submitted with prior appointment at the phone number 022-257-276, 022-257-409 at the NAC headquarters (audience room), at the address: 198 Ștefan cel Mare Și Sfânt Blvd., mun. Chișinău, MD 2005.
