

Six private companies awarded Integrity Trophy by the NAC for implementing integrity standards

Six private companies were awarded the Integrity Trophy by the National Anti-corruption Centre (NAC), in the category "Implementation of Integrity Standards" within the Moldovan Business Gala 2025, organized annually by the Chamber of Commerce and Industry of the Republic of Moldova, in partnership with the State Agency for Intellectual Property.

The distinction was granted to the companies S.A. CET-Nord, S.A. Orange Moldova, S.A. Moldcell, SRL Metro Cash & Carry Moldova, S.A. Kaufland Moldova and S.A. Coca-Cola HBC Moldova, in recognition of their commitment to promoting integrity, implementing anti-corruption policies and strengthening a fair, transparent and ethical business environment.

The nomination "Implementation of Integrity Standards in the Private Sector" aims to promote companies that integrate effective corruption prevention mechanisms into their activity, identify and manage associated risks and actively contribute to strengthening the culture of integrity in the business environment.

By awarding this trophy, the NAC aims to encourage and support private sector representatives in applying the provisions of the Integrity Law no. 82/2017, to promote good practices and to inspire other companies to adopt the same high standards of conduct.
